

Recruiting for the Consumer Advisory Committee [CAC] Membership

The RCEB Consumer Advisory Committee is looking for additional (volunteer) members to lead and strengthen our services for people with developmental disabilities. We are currently accepting applications for membership, but applicants must be able to attend regular meetings in our San Leandro office once a month from 4pm -5pm, when weather permits. Otherwise, the meetings will be via ZOOM.

Qualifications to participate are:

- Client must currently receive RCEB services and reside in Alameda or Contra Costa County.
- Client should be interested in interacting with other client members to discuss current issues, activities for resolutions, as well as share current events and ideas.
- Client must have a commitment to participate in these meetings.
- Client should be able to independently get to our San Leandro office, and RCEB will provide transportation home only (if needed) after the meeting.
- Client must attend at least 2-3 CAC meetings prior to submitting an application to become a member.
- If you are interested in attending regular meetings, please e-mail writetous@rceb.org with your intent to attend and an application will be sent to you. Once it is reviewed by the members, you will be scheduled for an interview to join.

The completed application should be submitted to writetous@rceb.org or mailed the contact/address provided below:

Karen Shuttleworth
Regional Center of the East Bay
500 Davis Street, Suite 100
San Leandro, CA 94577