

Supported Decision-Making: A Person-Centered Support Tool for Youth & Adults with Disabilities

Concerned about your family member's ability to make important decisions?
Considering conservatorship when your family member turns 18?
Learn about Alternatives to Conservatorship

Presented by the UC Davis MIND Institute's
Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD)

- Introducing supported-decision making
- Planning for when you are no longer able to support your loved one
- Introducing legal tools to support family members after they become adults
- Building a circle of support
- Identifying qualities of effective supporters
- Creating a supported decision-making agreement

Two FREE trainings: Mt. Diablo Adult Education, Loma Vista Adult Center
Multi-Purpose Room
1266 San Carlos Ave, Concord, CA

February 28, 2019

1:00PM – 3:00 PM: For Professionals Only

7:00PM – 9:00 PM: For Families / Self-Advocates Only

Register by February 19th

Register, Request Accommodations, & Info: bayarea@scdd.ca.gov 510-286-0439

Trainings co-sponsored by:

