

Dear RCEB Clients and Families:

We are concerned about your health and safety as we face this unprecedented and evolving COVID-19 Crisis. We want you to know that RCEB continues to be committed to serving your needs. We are reachable via phone or email. We have access to files and other information or records so we can assist you. As schools and programs close for extended periods to slow the spread of this virus, we want to help with any additional needs you have. Please continue to call and email during this time and continue to check our website. If this is a medical or police emergency, please dial 911.
