

FINAL RULE REMEDIATION CONSIDERATIONS

Some questions to consider and items to explicitly highlight when submitting your documents or creating a remediation plan

FED REQ 1:

ACCESS TO COMMUNITY

1. How do you support people to be with others without a disability?
2. How do you support people to control their own personal resources?

FED REQ 2:

CHOICE OF SETTING

1. How do you document that your service is what the individual wants to use?
2. How does someone let you know that they want to be elsewhere?
3. How do you ask if someone wants their own room or not?

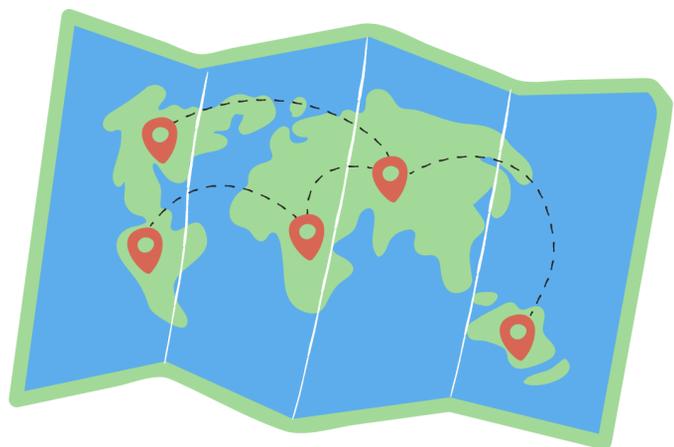

FED REQ 3:

RIGHT TO BE TREATED WELL

1. What practices do you have with regard to treating people with respect?
2. Do you provide a document of rights in an accessible manner?
3. How often do you go over this document and/or provide training regarding rights?

FED REQ 4: INDEPENDENCE

In what ways do you ensure that you do not get in the way of the choices someone gets to make and who they interact with?

FED REQ 5: CHOICE OF SERVICES AND SUPPORTS

How do you help someone make choices about the types of services they use? How do you help someone work with a person they really want to work with?

FED REQ 6: RESIDENTIAL AGREEMENT

Do you use a written agreement that provides protections for each person living at the home and is comparable to the jurisdiction's landlord tenant law?

FED REQ 7: PRIVACY

1. What types of conversations do you have regarding having lockable bedroom doors and their uses?
2. What process is there for choosing roommates?
3. Are individuals to furnish and decorate their room based on their preferences within the context of the residential agreement?

FED REQ 8: SCHEDULE AND ACCESS TO FOOD

1. How do you support people with making their own daily/weekly/monthly schedules?
2. How do you ensure that everyone in the home is able to have access to food at any time?

FED REQ 9: RIGHT TO VISITORS

Does the home allow individuals to receive visitors at any time?

FED REQ 10: ACCESSIBILITY

Are individuals able to access any and every part of the home? What types of accessibility features does the home have?

ALIGNING YOUR PRACTICE WITH YOUR DOCUMENTATION

While you may already be practicing a good portion of the Federal Requirements, it is pertinent to reflect these practices in your documents.
