What's next: for students and adults with disabilities, their families, and circles of support to learn about transitioning to adult services, building independence, and choosing a path that is right for them.

The Contra Costa County and Alameda County Developmental Disabilities Councils are excited to bring you the second annual East Bay Transition Conference & Resource Fair.

Presentation Topics: A Choice of 16 presentations covering a full range of transition topics, including:

- Continuing Education Options
- Paths Toward Employment
- Public Services for Adults
- Independent Living Supports
- Social Options and Supports
- Financial and Legal Considerations
- Transportation and Insurance Options

Resource Fair: Meet and connect with local support providers one-on-one, including:

- Social Services such as Regional Center East Bay (RCEB) and Department of Rehabilitation (DOR)
- Supported Living Providers
- College Programs
- Employment and Day Programs
- Living Options
