WHAT IS THE SELF DETERMATION PROGRAM?

SDP The Self-Determination Program (SDP) empowers Black individuals and families with disabilities to take control of their lives by selecting the services and supports that best meet their unique needs, both at home and in the community. SDP promotes autonomy, independence, and community inclusion, allowing families to choose culturally competent providers and develop personalized plans tailored to their goals.

THE 5 PRINCIPLES OF THE SELF DETERMATION PROGRAM?

Freedom

Empowers the participant to take control of their life and make their own choices

Authority

Participants have control over a budget for services

Support

Participants pick the supports & people for daily living, work, & recreation.

Responsibility

Make decisions in their life & have a valued role in the community

Confirmation

Participants are the decision makers about their life.
